

Module specification

1. Factual information
Module title	NC4209: A Focus on Children’s Literature
Module tutor	Kate Gingles	Level	4
Module type	Taught	Credit value	10
Mode of delivery	100% face-to-face
Notional learning hours	100 notional hours, made up of: Lectures: 10 hours Independent study: 90 hours
2. Rationale for the module and its links with other modules
Although early literacy and phonics will be taught in NC4204: Learning, Development and Pedagogical Theory, this module will focus on practical ways to support children's literacy and phonics.
3. Aims of the module
Children are surrounded by language, and stories are the way many children are introduced to the written word. For some children, this will be a great joy that will lead them onto mark-making, then writing, but others might be a little more reluctant. This optional module will explore the mechanics of reading and writing and establish the strategies students can use to promote positive engagement with literacy.
4. Pre-requisite modules or specified entry requirements
None.
5. Is the module compensatable?
Yes – at module level.
6. Learning, teaching and assessment strategy for the module
Lectures Independent research activity Group tasks

7. Intended learning outcomes At the end of the module, learners will be expected to:

1. Demonstrate how children's literature promotes children's early literacy.
2. Explain the use of literature to support children's understanding of the world.

A: Knowledge and understanding	B: Cognitive skills	C: Practical and professional skills	D: Key transferable skills
A1		C1	D2

8. Indicative content This should provide an overview of content over the number of weeks of module delivery

Story-telling and Promoting Early Literacy (LO1)

Books and Understanding the World (LO2)

This module provides opportunities for you to evidence the Early Childhood Graduate Practitioner Competencies <https://www.ecsdn.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/09/ECSDN-Booket-Rev-July-2020.pdf>.

9. Assessment

Assessment rationale

Students will perform a reading that supports engagement with children literature and promotes development and learning.

Students will explain the value of the literature and the act of reading by applying knowledge from the taught content and independent reading evidenced by the submission of a bibliography. The submission will include an annotated self-assessment rubric that is completed by the student within lectures.
